

All Hands at the Helm:
Lessons in Leadership and Program
Innovation

A smooth sea never made a skilled sailor
-Franklin D. Roosevelt

Nursing Education's Journey

Time and Team

Navigational Chart

Faculty Development

Student Support

Admissions

Retention & Completion

Standardized Testing Function & Purpose

Curriculum Assessment

Clinical Education

Data

Structure

Innovation

Achievement

Sea Legs

Souvenirs

Take Aways

- Start with what you have
- Small changes-big impact
- Many parts; remember to return to the whole
- Constant attention/maintenance
- Willingness to change course
- Many hands at the helm; eyes on the horizon

Thank you!

Questions?

A smooth sea never made a skilled sailor
-Franklin D. Roosevelt

Contact Information:

- Kim Curry-Lourenco: kcurrylourenc@vcu.edu
- Debra Murray, dmmurray@nsu.edu
- Phyllis Eaton: pmeaton@nsu.edu
- Rita Bouchard: rbouchard@tcc.edu